FOREWORD

The author hereof has worked for a number of years on this volume. He appreciates the assistance given him. He has tried, by the exchange of many letters and where possible, by personal visit, to get the information necessary to make this genealogy complete. If it is not, it is because you failed to give me the information that I asked for.

JOHN ANDREW KRANNICHFELD

There has been some confusion concerning the spelling of the name Krannichfeld.

I have a copy of the record of the dates and places of the births of John Andrew and Maria Magdalena and their children, which was written by my mother. She spelled the name Krannichfeldt. She had a book of hymns and prayers, printed in German, which had the same record written in German on the fly leaf. I assume that this was written by either Grandma or Grandpa Krannichfeld. It was spelled Krannichfeld. My sister Agnes, (Mrs. Leslie Toye), has this book. For the purpose of this genealogy, I will spell the name Krannichfeld, except in the record of Charles Henry and his family. They spell their name Krannichfeldt.

JOHN ANDREW and MARIA KRANNICHFELDT

On September 22 1964, Carl and Ruby Krannichfeldt, George and Huldah Larimore and Enza and I drove to Bryan, Ohio to locate, if possible, the Saint Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church. We found that it had merged with two other Lutheran Churches and formed the Trinity Lutheran Church. The pastor is Reverend Milton Reisen.

We found a record of those that had observed the Communion Service in 1875 and 1876. The names of Karl and Maria Krannichfeld were among them. The name Krannichfeld was not spelled correctly and Rev. Reisen was unable to identify some of the letters. We are satisfied that it was Charles Krannichfeldt and his mother. Carl said that his father used Karl as his name in his early life. Since both names were recorded in sequence in both years, there is no doubt that they were our own Charles and Grandma Krannichfeldt.

The record also showed that Theodore Krannichfeld was confirmed on Easter of 1877.

We have a certificate showing that Augusta Rosalie Krannichfeld was confirmed on April 20, 1879, (this was Sunday, probably Easter) in St. Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church. Records for the year 1879 could not be located.

These were records of the former St. Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church.

We found no record of John Andrew Krannichfeldt, so assume that he passed away prior to 1875.

Ralph Larimore.

and
MARIA MAGDALENA OTTO

John Andrew Krannichfeld was born on September 27, 1821 in Wiemar, Germany, which is in the province of Thuringia. The date and place of his death and burial are unknown.

Maria Magdalena Otto was born on November 11, 1829 in Erfurt, Germany, also in the province of Thuringia. She died on August 10, 1899 at Paducah, Kentucky, and is buried there.

They came to America in 1851 and were married, and settled in or near Buffalo, New York where he worked at his trade of cabinet maker. Later they moved to Indiana and settled in what is now the east edge of Fort Wayne. Some say that their home was in the vicinity of the Meyer Road and U. S. 30.

They were the parents of three sons and four daughters: Lue Godlope, Charles Henry, Elizabeth Johanna, Wilhelmina Phillipina, Ophelia Otillia, Theodore Fredrick and Augusta Rosalie.

Lue Godlope Krannichfeld
